SHIPPING AND HANDLING

Standard Ground Shipping

DCS will generally ship all Purchasing Customer orders via ground shipment as our standard procedure unless specified otherwise on the Website or requested by the Purchaser, the same day of receipt if received by 2pm Central Time. Orders received after this time will be shipped the next Business Day using the applicable shipping timeline.

Expedited Overnight Shipping

Any Purchaser requesting an Expedited Overnight Shipment from DCS for an item that does not already include "Standard Overnight Shipping" as marked on the Website will be billed an additional fee of a minimum of $75.00 plus additional fees to cover the cost of transportation. This fee amount will be provided to the Purchaser on the Website at the time of checkout or via email if placing an order by phone. Any fees for Expedited Overnight Shipping will be on a separate invoice to the Purchasing Customer and are payable to DCS.

Standard Overnight Shipping

Some Manufacturer's Products may require overnight expedited shipping (such as in the case of refrigerated Products). In this case, DCS' standard procedure will be to ship these Products overnight. These Products will be identified on the Website as having "Standard Overnight Shipping" and Purchasing Customer will not be charged any additional expedited shipping fees to receive these products next day.

Limitations on Shipping and Delivery

All shipping options are subject to the Product Manufacturer's policy and requirements for the proper care and handling of the individual Product being purchased. Shipping options are subject to availability and delivery times as provided by the shipper at the time of shipment.

BILLING, CREDIT, AND PAYMENT

All DCS invoices will be payable in full by means of an electronic funds transfer ("EFT") system designated or approved by DCS in its discretion. For purposes of identification, billing and marketing, you agree to provide DCS with accurate, complete and up-to-date information required for receipt of any DCS Services and, specifically, you agree to notify DCS within 20 days of any changes in any such information.

Deductions against invoiced amounts are not permitted to be made by you, and you will not take any deductions or make any offsets from money owed to DCS nor apply any Credit Memorandum to invoiced amounts. In addition, DCS may offset any money owed to DCS with the amount deducted in violation of this section.

Any invoiced funds will be transferred at the direction of the Purchaser and will be available to DCS on the following dates after the date of the invoice: 100% of gross invoice amount due on or before the thirtieth (30th) Calendar Day from date of invoice. If the payment falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, payment will be processed on the next Business Day.

The Purchasing Customer is responsible for ensuring that their account is kept current at all times. Should the Purchasing Customer's account become past due, for any reason, no additional Product will be invoiced to the Purchasing Customer's account until the account is paid in full. However, if a Purchasing Customer's account is past due, the Purchasing Customer may call DCS and place an order to be paid for by credit card at the time order is placed. A convenience fee of the greater of $25 or 3.5% will be added to any credit card order placed while account is in past due status. A late fee of 1.5% per month (or any portion thereof) may be charged as of the due date on any amounts not paid within thirty (30) days of the invoice date, except any amount disputed by a Purchasing Customer in good faith. If any dispute is resolved in favor of DCS, the Purchasing Customer will pay the applicable late fee on such amount from the original due date.

The Purchaser warrants to DCS that each entry transmitted by it or its agents or employees on its behalf to a depository financial institution for the purpose of initiating an EFT transaction is duly authorized by the Purchaser. Without the Purchasers' prior written consent, DCS will not have the right to debit electronically any account of the Purchaser.

Credits approved by DCS or by a Manufacturer in the case of a return, will be paid to the Purchaser by Credit Memo application to the Purchaser's account by means of an EFT system established by DCS.

With respect to any EFT entry originated by DCS' bank, or any delay in receipt by the Purchasing Customer of approved credit funds transmitted by DCS by means of EFT, DCS will be liable to the Purchasing Customer only for DCS' gross negligence and willful misconduct, and further, DCS's liability to the Purchasing Customer will additionally be limited to reasonably foreseeable actual damages proximately thereby.

Neither party will be liable to the other for the act or omission of any financial institution or any automated clearing house in connection with the use of EFT for payment of funds and neither party will be liable for consequential damages to the other arising out of the use of EFT for payment of funds.

Each party agrees promptly to return, by EFT, any overpayment received.

The Purchasing Customer will execute all authorizations required by DCS or DCS's or Purchasing Customer's depository financial institutions for payment and receipt of funds by EFT and to notify DCS promptly of any changes in those authorizations.

To the extent applicable to the transfer of funds by EFT under these Terms of Use, each party will be bound by the Operating Rules and Guidelines of the National Automated Clearing House Association as those Operating Rules and Guidelines may be in effect from time to time.

DCS may require that each order from the Purchasing Customer be accompanied by a certified check or other form of payment satisfactory to DCS in an amount sufficient to cover the order or require that the Purchasing Customer provide security in an amount and form reasonably satisfactory to DCS, and may declare due and owing all outstanding indebtedness from the Purchasing Customer, including invoices on which extended dating has been granted, in the event (a) reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance by the Purchasing Customer under these Terms of Use for which adequate assurances are not provided promptly (and in no event later than within ten (10) Calendar Days of written request from DCS), all as contemplated by UCC 2-609, whether in connection with an acquisition of Purchasing Customer by another company, a termination of these Terms of Use by DCS or Purchasing Customer, or otherwise, (b) the Purchasing Customer becomes insolvent, or (c) the Purchasing Customer is in breach of any material monetary obligation arising from or governed by these Terms of Use and such breach has not been cured by Purchasing Customer within five Business Days' notice from DCS of such breach. For purposes of clause (a) of this section and in connection with an acquisition of Purchasing Customer, the parties will, in good faith, take into consideration the financial condition of Purchasing Customer and its affiliates on a consolidated basis (including any successor entity of Purchasing Customer).

Products shipped but not paid for at the time of the cancellation or termination of these Terms of Use will be paid for in accordance with the terms of these Terms of Use.

Pricing Errors

Despite our best efforts, a small number of the items in our catalog may be mispriced. If the correct price is different than that shown, DCS reserves the right to re-invoice your account at the correct price whether the correct price is higher or lower than the initial listed price shown at time of purchase.

- If the Purchase Price shown at the time of purchase is higher than the correct price, DCS will issue credit to the Purchasing Customer for the difference between the Purchase Price and the correct price.

- If the Purchase Price shown at the time of purchase is lower than the correct price, DCS will reinvoice the Purchasing Customer at the correct higher price and issue a corresponding credit to the Purchasing Customer for the initial Purchase Price.

NO DIVERSION

Purchasing Customer will only use Product for its own use (as that term is defined by the United States Supreme Court in Abbott Laboratories, et.al, v. Portland Retail Druggists Association, Inc., 425 U.S. 1 (1976)) and will not divert, sell or transfer any Product nor aid and assist any party to sell or transfer any Product to any party other than the Purchaser or Purchaser's legally contracted pharmacy partner. Purchasing Customer will also ensure that no legally contracted pharmacy partners will sell or transfer any Product to any other party outside of the Purchasing Customer's network of contract pharmacy partners.

Purchasing Customer will provide a phone call and email notice to DCS within 24 hours of receiving knowledge of any entity or person offering, selling, or purchasing Product that has been diverted in breach of the above prohibition, describing all information that Purchasing Customer has learned concerning such diverted Product.

DCS may monitor Purchaser orders for possible diversion or other unusual purchases or usage activity and may limit Purchaser orders necessary to minimize any such activity. Metrics for monitoring Purchaser orders will be established by the Manufacturer and will apply to all Purchasers of Manufacturer's Product equally.

OFFSET & RECOUPMENT RIGHTS

That (1) in the event Purchaser is in default under any term of these Terms of Use, (2) upon cancellation or termination of these Terms of Use, or (3) with evidence of a condition of insolvency of the Purchaser or a Purchaser's subsidiary, affiliate or location, then DCS will have the right to offset or recoup, as the case may be, any amount due and owing DCS against amounts otherwise owing to the Purchasing Customer or Purchasing Customer's subsidiaries, Affiliates or alternate locations.

TITLE, RISK OF LOSS AND RETURNS

Title and risk of loss for all Products shipped will pass to the Purchaser from Manufacturer when the Products are duly delivered to the carrier. At no point does DCS hold title to any Products.

DCS does not receive returned items with the following exceptions as stated below: a) items that are ordered in error or shipped in error and are re-saleable may be returned in original condition to DCS for restocking and b) items damaged in transit to the Purchaser may be returned to DCS. All other returns such as damaged, mishandled or expired items should be sent to the respective Manufacturer or the Preferred Returns Provider of the Manufacturer of the Product. The Manufacturer will determine whether credit may be issued consistent with their individual return goods policy. If a Manufacturer does not have a Preferred Returns Provider the item may be returned to the Purchasers' own Preferred Returns Provider to request credit from the Manufacturer if the use of the Purchaser's own Returns Provider is approved by the Manufacturer. DCS will only apply credit to the Purchaser's account once the Manufacturer has approved a credit request and provided DCS with a valid Credit Memo.

Expired or Mishandled Product Return

- Requests for return of goods with expired dating are to be made directly to the Product Manufacturer for evaluation by the Manufacturer, after obtaining return authorization from the Manufacturer, under their existing return goods policy.
- Requests for return of Product approaching expiration or Product mishandled or damaged by the Purchaser will be handled directly with Manufacturer or Manufacturer's Preferred Returns Provider and administered under the policy of the specific Manufacturer. If the Manufacturer approves the requested return and a corresponding credit request is issued, the Credit Memo will be relayed to DCS. DCS will apply the approved Credit Memo to the appropriate Purchasing Customer's account.

Order Error

- In event of an order error, the Purchasing Customer may cancel an order by using the Website or by calling DCS if the orders have not yet processed and been delivered to the shipper.
- Orders that have already been processed and shipped can be returned to DCS at the expense of the Purchasing Customer if Product is undamaged, unopened and was stored properly and controlled at all times within the Product Manufacturer's policy.
- DCS will authenticate Product returned as resaleable per DSCSA guidelines.
- An order error return will be charged a minimum restocking fee of $5 per unit returned.
- An order error return that is damaged when received by DCS will not receive credit and will be sent to the Manufacturer's Preferred Returns Provider for destruction.

Shipping Error Return

- Orders shipped in error by DCS may be returned to DCS for credit or Purchasing Customer may keep the Product and DCS will invoice for it.
- Returns of "over shipment" errors must be received by DCS unopened, undamaged and stored properly at all times within the Product Manufacturers policy.
- DCS will pay shipping costs for Purchasing Customer to return Product shipped in error by DCS.
- If a shipping error is returned and Product is opened, altered or damaged when received at DCS, the Product will be sent to Manufacturer's Preferred Returns Provider for destruction.
- DCS will authenticate any Product returned as resaleable per DSCSA guidelines.
- Short shipment claims will be resolved by DCS and any resulting credit will be applied to Purchasing Customer's account in lieu of replacement Product.
- DCS will have sole discretion regarding validation of shipping error or short shipment claims.
- The Purchaser will give DCS written notice of any claimed shipping error within ten (10) Business Days after the date of shipment from DCS. Failure of the Purchaser to give such notice within such ten (10)-day period will be deemed a waiver of the Purchaser's claim for shortage or incorrect shipment.

Product Damaged En Route

- Product damaged during shipment from DCS must be returned to DCS. DCS will cover return shipping costs.
- Shipping damage claims must be delivered to DCS in writing within 10 Business Days of the invoice date.
- Damage to Products in course of shipment from DCS, but not discovered on receipt is considered concealed damage and must be reported to DCS in writing within ten (10) Business Days of discovery for credit consideration.
- Shipping damage claims will be validated at the sole discretion of DCS.
- Valid shipping damage claims will have a credit issued to Purchasing Customer in lieu of sending replacement Product.

Any Return

The Purchasing Customer will not receive credit for Products a) returned using a process other than described above, b) not received at DCS if returning to DCS due an order or shipping error, c) destroyed at source, or d) lost/damaged in transit. The Products' respective Manufacturer will have final approval regarding any credit for a Product return to their Preferred Returns Provider and DCS will have final say on any return to DCS due an order or shipping error.

In all cases DCS will work directly with the respective Manufacturer to receive Credit Memo's and apply credits to the Purchasing Customers' account once the Credit Memo has been received.

DCS is not responsible for return shipments lost in transit or received at DCS in opened or damaged condition.

All Product complaint questions should be directed to the respective product Manufacturer. DCS IS NOT A MANUFACTURER OF PRODUCT BUT SIMPLY FACILITATES DISTRIBUTION OF ORDERS AND INVOICING BETWEEN CUSTOMERS AND MANUFACTURERS.

Questions regarding this Product Return Policy can be directed to DCS Customer Service at 731-574-2060.
